Regulatory and Government Affairs

Bob joined the Stevens & Lee Government Affairs team in 2006, after working for almost two decades as part of the senior staff at the PA House of Representatives where he accumulated extensive experience in legislative and state government policy matters.

Throughout his long tenure at Stevens & Lee, he has worked closely with a diverse group of clients to navigate the complicated state government process in Harrisburg. He provides experienced guidance and assistance to meet clients' needs in areas such as legislative and regulatory initiatives, legislative strategy, state grant identification and allocation, and state budget appropriations. In addition to his strong legislative background, he has broad experience interacting on behalf of clients with state regulatory agencies, including the Insurance and Health and Human Services Departments, and the PA Liquor Control Board.

Prior to joining the firm in 2006, Bob served for seven years as Executive Director of the Pennsylvania House of Representatives Insurance Committee. In that role, he advised the Speaker of the House, Majority leader and Committee Chairman on health care, medical malpractice and various other insurance related issues. Prior to that, he served in the same capacity with the Liquor Control Committee and the House Finance Committee.
