Tax-Exempt Finance

Brian has an extensive tax-exempt municipal, health care, educational facilities and project financing background. He is experienced in a wide range of tax-exempt and taxable municipal bond financings, including general obligation and revenue bond offerings, tax and revenue anticipation notes, derivative products, variable rate transactions, pool financings and credit-enhanced financings. He acts as bond counsel, underwriter's counsel and issuer's counsel in all aspects of tax-exempt finance, including health care, education, utility, municipal, industrial development and exempt facilities.

Brian came to Stevens & Lee after obtaining valuable experience at one of New York City's premier firms specializing in tax-exempt finance for health care and higher education clients nationally.

Finally, Wade has a depth of knowledge with government records matters, including litigation concerning the Open Public Records Act and the common law right of access.

Wade is a former Judicial Law Clerk to The Honorable Joseph L. Yannotti, New Jersey Superior Court, Appellate Division. While in law school, he was an editor on Rutgers University Law Review.
