Lisa is Chair of the Structured Finance Group. She focuses her practice on the representation of banks, financial services companies, other lenders and insurers in connection with mergers, securities matters, and structured finance transactions, with an emphasis on asset-backed securities offerings in the public and private markets. She routinely counsels originators, lenders, issuers, sellers, purchasers and servicers on a wide variety of financial transactions, including loan portfolio acquisitions and sales, servicing-rights transfers and asset-backed financings structured as debt involving student loan, auto, credit card and other consumer loan receivables, as well as residential, commercial, and home equity mortgage loans. She also has extensive experience negotiating and documenting secured and unsecured lending agreements and debt restructuring agreements.

Lisa joined Stevens & Lee as an attorney with years of directly relevant experience in the student loan and mortgage banking industries beginning in 1988. Prior to her legal career, she supervised the Financial Reporting and Budgeting Departments for four servicing centers in Sallie Mae's Northeast Region. She also previously managed Mortgage Operations and Investor Administration for First Eastern Bank, N.A., where she was responsible for all aspects of agency and non-agency secondary market mortgage transactions for the institution, in addition to mortgage loan servicing and portfolio acquisitions.

Lisa served as a law clerk for the Honorable Marvin R. Halbert, Philadelphia Court of Common Pleas, Complex Litigation Unit.
