Practice

Corporate

Jean concentrates her practice in mergers and acquisitions, representing sophisticated private investment funds, multinational corporations and other market participants in their most challenging transactional matters. She is known for engineering creative resolutions which unite divergent parties and bring complex deals to fruition.

Jean also serves as corporate counsel to a number of private companies on a wide range of corporate and strategic matters.

Representative Experience

- Represented a software development and services provider for commercial and industrial environments in the sale of substantially all of its assets in a transaction that included sophisticated tax planning and carryover investment in the new entity by management
